Important GDPR statement

The information you have supplied will be held by The Guild purely for the purposes of communicating with you and will never be shared with other parties. The Guild magazine from time to time publishes lists of members' names and their county area, but never their addresses. Guild meetings may also be photographed by an official photographer but you always have the right to refuse permission to be included in any photos if you indicate this at the time. Kindly place a cross in this box to give your consent to us to store your information.

I give my permission for the Guild to keep the details supplied on this form for the purposes of communicating with me for as long as I am a member of this Guild.
